URBAN.LIVING

One of the standout features of this over-sized apartment is the sunlit, nor-east-facing living space that flows to a generous balcony that offers beautiful, leafy views of the district. With low strata fees and a tidy and functional floorplan, this immaculate apartment will be perfect for first home-buyers or investors. It is set in a nicely maintained and solid block of just 12 apartments and features a large amount of storage space. The beauty of this location lies in the tranquility it offers, yet it's easy to access the vibrant dining and shopping scene in Neutral Bay and is within walking distance of North Sydney.

Accommodation

- Generously scaled living area with ideal north-easterly aspect
- Living flows out to a good sized balcony with beautiful district views
